

CELEBRATING OUR RIVERS

The Oyster River Festival

— JACKSON'S LANDING, DURHAM —

Sunday, July 26, 2009

Children of all ages love to sing while setting the gundalow's sail!

— FREE —
Open to the Public
Jackson's Landing
in Durham

sponsored by

NH Coastal Program

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

NEW HAMPSHIRE
CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

FRIENDS of the Gundalow

As part of its mission to protect the Piscataqua Maritime Region through education and action, the Gundalow Company—in collaboration with the town of Durham—invites Durham residents and the public to celebrate the Oyster River and enjoy an evening of songs featuring folk singer, Bill Staines.

2:00 – 5:30 P.M.

Tours, Music and Children's Activities on the Gundalow

Bring a picnic, enjoy the river view, hear some steel band music, and tour the gundalow with special activities for children all afternoon. The UNH Marine Docent Chantey Singers will perform onboard the gundalow at 5:00. Learn how to get involved in the ongoing efforts to protect the Oyster River and the Great Bay Estuary.

6:00 P.M.

Bill Staines Concert on the Gundalow

"Staines is one of the best songwriters in folk music today, penning lyrics that evoke a sense of place and a generous spirit to go along with his pretty melodies." – Associated Press

Bring a chair, your picnic basket, and enjoy an evening of songs by the river featuring folk singer, Bill Staines!

In case of rain the concert will be held under cover at the hockey rink.

Gundalow
COMPANY

Protecting the Piscataqua Maritime Region through Education and Action.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

(603) 433-9505 | INFO@GUNDALOW.ORG

WWW.GUNDALOW.ORG